JANET MURGUÍA TO MEET WITH PRESIDENT BUSH TO DISCUSS THE REAUTHORIZATION OF THE NO CHILD LEFT BEHIND ACT

Washington, DC – The National Council of La Raza (NCLR), the largest national Hispanic civil rights and advocacy organization in the U.S., and its President and CEO Janet Murguía will meet with President George W. Bush at the White House on Thursday, April 12 as part of a delegation which includes business leaders and school administrators to discuss the reauthorization of the No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB).

This year marks the fifth anniversary since passage of NCLB, and NCLR believes that the upcoming reauthorization presents an opportunity both to fully fund the promise of the law and to ensure that schools remain accountable to the education of Latino and English language learner (ELL) students.
